

Borden's Evaporated Milk

Learning Economy Early

When the daughter of the house begins to show signs of wanting to cook—that is the time for mother to begin her training in kitchen economy.

Give her Borden's Evaporated Milk to use wherever the recipe calls for milk. The tasty results of her efforts will encourage daughter. She'll learn thrift unconsciously—be preparing properly for the duties of later life.

Borden's Evaporated Milk is pure, wholesome, rich milk that is both economical and convenient to use. I advocate it for all cooking purposes.

Try the recipe below. You'll appreciate how easy to use and how economical Borden's Evaporated Milk is.

Cornmeal Coffee Cake
3 tablespoonfuls Borden's Evaporated Milk offset with 5
tablespoonfuls cold water
1/2 cupful white cornmeal
1/2 cupful bread flour
3/4 teaspoonful baking powder

1 teaspoonful cinnamon
3/4 tablespoonful shortening
1 egg
1/2 cupful corn or maple syrup
1/2 teaspoonful salt
1/2 cupful chopped walnuts

Mix the dry ingredients together thoroughly, work in the fat, keeping the mixture mealy, as for baking powder biscuit; then add the syrup, milk and egg, and pour into a well-oiled, small dripping pan. Then mix two tablespoonfuls of extra syrup with a teaspoonful of cinnamon, spread it over the mixture in a moderate oven 375 degrees F.

MINIMUM WAGE TO BE SET.

War Labor Board Also To Hear Plea for Higher Car Fares.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—Claims of street railways companies that existing fares allowed by utility commission are insufficient to permit them to pay their employees living wages will be heard by the National War Labor Board Monday. Coincident with this hearing the board will conduct an investigation to determine what constitutes a living wage. Statistics on the cost of living will be studied and a minimum wage fixed as a basis upon which future wage controversies will be adjusted.

Bermuda Forbids Exports of Potatoes.
WASHINGTON, June 21.—Bermuda, by proclamation issued under martial law, has forbidden exports of potatoes as a measure to insure the food supply of her people, a report received here to-day said.

Secretary Lansing's Sisters Lived In a Wine Cellar After German Raid

Misses Emma S. and Katharine E. Lansing.

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE, June 21 (Associated Press).—Recently when German airmen bombed a village near the front where the Misses Emma S. and Katharine E. Lansing, sisters of Secretary Lansing, managed a Red Cross canteen, they were forced virtually to live in a champagne cellar until they could close the canteen and leave the village. The Germans had advanced in that sector and subjected the vil-

No Underwriters for B. R. T.
It was announced yesterday that no underwriting syndicate has been formed in the proposed financing of the $67,735,000 of a per cent. notes of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company. Bankers who have been identified with the affairs of the company will exert their influence in obtaining assents to the proposed plans, but will not assume any further responsibility of the obligation. There must be universal acceptance of the plan if the suggested arrangement by the War Finance Corporation is to become effective.

DOG RUNS AMUCK, BITES SEVEN IN JERSEY CITY

Animal Is Shot After a Long Chase by Policemen and an Excited Crowd.

Seven persons were bitten by a black mongrel dog which ran amuck through the streets of lower Jersey City this morning. The dog was first seen at Adams Street, near Fourth. It ran down Mercer Street, thence to Henderson, across the City Hall, and then to the foot of that street to the yard of the Quakers Wrecking Company. Police in auto patrols and on foot, followed by an excited crowd, pursued the dog. It seized and bit every one in its path. After the animal had sought refuge in the Goldenberg yard policemen shot and killed it. City Physician Edward Mulvaney attended those who were bitten. They were Joseph Holpin, ten years old; Phereas Whalen, twenty-one; Tillie Marroll, nine; Rosa Dachuksa, twelve; Edmund Wisenbath, twenty-one; George Lasso, eighteen; and Fannie Tulockie, seventeen.

Give Him A Fair Start

MRS. WILSON: Why, Molly, you don't give that poor little tyke a cathartic every day, do you?

MOLLY PHILLIPS: This isn't a cathartic, mother. It's Nujol. It was the only thing I could use while the baby was nursing. I was terribly constipated, you know, just after he was born.

MRS. WILSON: Well, that's to be expected, I guess. I remember the trouble I had when you were born, dear.

MOLLY: Oh, mother, I was in awful shape. I tried everything. And everything failed. All the laxatives and cathartics I was taking began to affect the baby. He had colic and lost weight. My milk really seemed to poison him. Then the doctor ordered the Nujol treatment. You know the body doesn't absorb Nujol at all and consequently Nujol doesn't affect the milk,—it passes smoothly along the intestines, softening and clearing out the food waste as it goes. It was an ideal treatment for my condition.

MRS. WILSON: Does it work quickly?

MOLLY: No—it depends on the individual. It took me several days, but since then I've been regular as clockwork. That's one of the best things about it. There's no griping, no violent action—isn't it funny, mother, that some people don't feel they are getting results unless they get disturbance and rough treatment in the process! You would never know you had taken Nujol—it's so gentle. It simply softens the contents of the bowels and prevents the drying out and collecting of poison matter in the 'colon'—the large intestine. That's where almost all disease breeds you know.

MRS. WILSON: How do you feel after taking it?

MOLLY: Oh, nothing but good effects—because there are no drugs in Nujol. That's why it can be taken regularly. You don't have to set aside a day to recover from it every time.

MRS. WILSON: Do you give it to the baby regularly now?

MOLLY: Yes, indeed, he's already started. Every baby is born with a natural kink in his bowels—it has to straighten out naturally, and Nujol prevents any obstruction there. It rather helps Nature to help herself. The doctor approves, and this sample of the youngest generation is going to grow up thinking Nujol inside is just as important as his morning bath outside—which it is. And mother, look here!

MRS. WILSON: Yes, Molly?

MOLLY: See how well he takes it!

For your own protection insist that the druggist give you the genuine Nujol, in a sealed and capped bottle, bearing the Nujol trademark in red—never otherwise. Nujol is absolutely pure and harmless. Inferior substitutes may give unpleasant results. Genuine Nujol sold by all druggists in the U. S. and Canada.

Send 50 cents and we will ship new kit size bottle to U. S. soldiers and sailors anywhere. Write for attractive free booklet on the Nujol treatment: Section 5, Nujol Dept., Standard Oil Co. (New Jersey), Bayonne, N. J.
